

Subject and Object Pronouns – Monday

Name: _____

A pronoun used as the subject of a sentence is called a subject pronoun.

A pronoun used after an action verb or as the object of a preposition is called an object pronoun.

I, you, he, she, it, we, and they are subject pronouns.

Me, you, him, her, it, us, and them are object pronouns.

Directions Circle the pronouns in each sentence.

1. She read a book to the class, and the children listened to her. (2)
2. The principal will give a certificate to you for “Student of the Month.”
3. Mrs. Williams has a puppy. It is fluffy, white, and adorable!
4. Stefanie likes to brush him each night before going to bed.
5. She and I both take Cuddles for walks around the block. (2)

Directions Write SP if the underlined pronoun is a subject pronoun.

Write OP if it is an object pronoun.

6. Elmer Lake is very shallow. It is not deep at all. _____
7. The Home and School gave pencils to us. _____
8. Mrs. Williams is nice. She helps us with our work. _____

Subject and Object Pronouns – Tuesday

Name: _____

A pronoun used as the subject of a sentence is called a subject pronoun.

A pronoun used after an action verb or as the object of a preposition is called an object pronoun.

I, you, he, she, it, we, and they are subject pronouns.

Me, you, him, her, it, us, and them are object pronouns.

Directions Circle the pronouns in each sentence.

1. My family went to Disney, and we flew in a plane. (2)
2. The class sang “Happy Birthday” to you last week.
3. The flowers will bloom in spring, it will be so beautiful.
4. Steve gave him a bike to ride.
5. She and I both enjoy eating chocolate candy bars. (2)

Directions Write SP if the underlined pronoun is a subject pronoun.

Write OP if it is an object pronoun.

6. My hair is long. It is also dark. _____
7. The children sang to us. _____
8. Mr. Cougle is funny. He makes us laugh. _____

Subject and Object Pronouns – Wednesday

Name: _____

Directions Mark the letter of the pronoun that can replace the underlined word or words.

1. Birds swoop down to the river to catch fish. A. Them B. She C. Him D. They	5. The parents gave presents to the children. A. they B. them C. her D. it
2. The zoo keeper feeds fish to penguins. A. them B. they C. her D. him	6. Steven and Dawn had a birthday party last month. A. him B. her C. he D. she
3. The birthday party surprised Monica. A. it B. she C. her D. them	7. The boys lost our kickball on the playground. A. Them B. Him C. He D. They
4. A teacher graded the reading tests last week. A. She B. Her C. They D. Them	8. Stefanie gave a dog bone to Cuddles. A. I B. them C. him D. he

Subject and Object Pronouns – Thursday

Name: _____

A pronoun used as the subject of a sentence is called a subject pronoun.

A pronoun used after an action verb or as the object of a preposition is called an object pronoun.

I, you, he, she, it, we, and they are subject pronouns.

Me, you, him, her, it, us, and them are object pronouns.

Directions Write SP if the underlined pronoun is subject pronouns. Write OP if it is an object pronoun.

1. Cuddles is a boy puppy. He is so little and cute. _____
2. Father took a healthy lunch and snack with him. _____
3. The librarian read books to us, we liked them a lot! _____
4. They brought mostly animals stories to our class. _____
5. You would love to visit our class too! _____

Directions Choose the correct pronoun for each sentence.

6. Stefanie and (me, I) will read the story with the class.
7. The spelling test was easy for (we, us).
8. (Him, He) and I like to swim in the ocean in the summer.