

Adjectives That Compare – Monday

Name: _____

Adjectives are often used to make comparisons. To compare two people, places, or things, you usually add -er to an adjective. To compare three or more people, places, or things, you usually add -est to an adjective. Sometimes you must change the spelling of an adjective when you write the -er or -est form (drop final e, change y to i, or double final letter).

Directions Complete the table below with the correct adjective.

| regular form | -er form | -est form |
|--------------|----------|-----------|
| large | | |
| | warmer | |
| | | closest |
| | nearer | |
| busy | | |
| | | smallest |
